

Position: Internal Medicine Specialist

Type: Permanent, Full-Time

Location: Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Five Hills Health Region

Salary: Fee for Service (Average annual earnings of Internist in Saskatchewan $389,000) and On-Call Remuneration in accordance with the Saskatchewan Emergency Coverage Program (SECP)

Community Information

The City of Moose Jaw is located in south-central Saskatchewan along the Trans Canada Highway, 70 kilometres west of the Regina International Airport. Moose Jaw offers many cultural, entertainment and recreational activities, as well as excellent educational facilities and affordable housing in a friendly and safe environment. Visit <http://moosejaw.ca/> for more information.

Moose Jaw is home to the new Dr. F.H. Wigmore Regional Hospital (opened in October 2015) which was built using a collaborative, team-based care model. This new model of care sees health professionals and support staff serving patients in a building designed to bring services to the patient as promptly and effectively as possible. Visit www.fhhr.ca for more information about the regional hospital and surrounding facilities.

Job Description

The regional hospital is a 72-bed accredited acute care facility where the successful general internist will provide consultative services to hospital patients and work in the 4-bed ICU. Other specialties include general surgery, anaesthesiology, urology, orthopaedics, obstetrics/gynaecology, ophthalmology, psychiatry, pathology, diagnostic imaging and paediatrics.

The successful candidate will also operate a fee-for-service private medical clinic in the City of Moose Jaw and share on-call responsibilities with four other internal medicine colleagues.

Qualifications

Applicants are required to, or be eligible to, hold certification in Internal Medicine from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and be eligible for licensure to practice in Saskatchewan. In accordance with Canadian Foreign Worker requirements, preference will be given to Canadian Citizens and Permanent Residents of Canada.
